such chairs are specified within these bylaws, for the advice and consent of the Board of Directors.

B. Standing Committees

- 3) Audit/Financial Review Committee: The Audit/Financial Review Committee is responsible for conducting a yearly review of the KSA financial records and submitting a report of their findings to the KSA Board at the 2nd board meeting each year. Neither the Treasurer, the Secretary, nor the prior year holders of these offices may serve on the audit committee. Only one member of the Finance Committee may serve on the audit committee.

C. Ad hoc Committees: The President with advice and consent of the Board of Directors may authorize the appointment of ad hoc committees to aid KSA in achieving its goals. Ad hoc committees shall serve until a task or goal is completed (for example, a specific fundraising campaign committee might work a few months; a planning committee for a specific conference might work for two or three years). An ad hoc committee with on going work (example Youth Storytelling Program) may be reauthorized by the President-elect simply determining if the Chair(s) wish to continue in the upcoming year. Such continuations should be announced to the Board of Directors at either the Board meeting within 24 hours of the general membership meeting or at the January Board meeting so that appointment of the Chair(s) will be noted in KSA Minutes.

Committee Reporting to the Board of Directors: Unless a reporting date is otherwise specified in these bylaws, all committees must provide a written report by electronic means and by a date established by the President prior to each Board meeting. For a committee with no new action, a "no update needed" report will suffice. (For example, an Orientation Committee might not have needed to make any revisions, while a Conference Committee would likely have a brief update every Board meeting.)

No Board member or committee member may receive monetary compensation for serving on the Board, serving as an Officer, or chairing or serving on a committee of the Board.
- D. Nondiscrimination Policy
 - 1) It is Kentucky Storytelling Association's policy to provide equal employment opportunity for all members, volunteers, applicants, and employees.
